DEATH OF E. S. EGGLESTON.

The Venerable Jurist Died at Parma From Apoplexy.

One of the old settlers are passing over to the border land to the light and sunshine of another world. On Sunday night the Hon. Ebenezer S. Eggleston, for many years past a leading lawyer of this city and one of the best known of the early settlers, died of apoplexy at Parma, Mich., where he was visiting his brother, Dr. Charles Eggleston. Mr. Eggleston was born at Batavia, N. Y., May 12, 1825.

In 1857 he located at Litchfield, Hillsdale county, and attended the public schools. Afterwards he studied law and was admitted to the bar in this city in 1862, having come here the previous year. In 1866 he was elected prosecuting attorney for Kent county, having already been recognized as one of the leading lawyers of western Michigan. In 1868 he was appointed counsel to Spain by President Lincoln and filled the office for four years with credit to himself and satisfaction to his party. He was again elected to a public trust, representing Grand Rapids in the legislature. During his term in this capacity he served as an active member of the judiciary committee and chairman of the committee on private corporations. He was first associated in law partnership with Judge Solomon L. Withey, Col. George Gray afterward being admitted to the firm. When Mr. Eggleston was appointed counsel to Spain he withdrew from his law partnership. When he returned he entered into partnership with United States District Attorney A. D. Griswold and was made Assistant United States district attorney. His next law partner was Jacob Kleinhaus, the firm afterward becoming Elzer, Eggleston, Kingsley & Kleinhaus. Later he was associated with James E. McBride, but advancing years bore on him so heavily that he had almost suspended active practice during the past three years.

October 9, 1877, his beloved son, Herbert, while hunting on the Boardman river near Traverse City, was accidentally drowned. Five years ago his wife died and these two events saddened and shortened his life. Two months ago he went to Boston to visit his daughter, Mrs. E. O. Ely, the only surviving member of his immediate family. While returning he stopped at Parma to visit his brother, and there death overtook him. He was a kindly, courteous gentleman of the old school and will be greatly missed. The remains will arrive in this city today at 2 p. m.

Hot Political Campaign.

It is claimed so strongly by each party that the coming presidential election means victory, that it would appear that strenuous exertions will be made in the struggle. Leaders of local political clubs who are considering when to purchase campaign goods will do well to correspond with G. F. Foster, Son & Co., Chicago, who are one of the largest dealers in the country in banners, flags, regalia, etc.

H. J. Mayers of Oakland, Md., says: "I have sold thirteen bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy today and am literally sold out. This is the largest sale on record of any one preparation in a day over our counters. It gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine we handle, and as a seller it leads all other preparations on this market." For sale by F. J. Warburg, druggist, No. 58 Monroe street.

The First Symptoms of Death.

Fretful feeling, dull headache, pains in various parts of the body, sinking at the pit of the stomach, loss of appetite, feverishness, dizziness or worse, are all positive evidence of poisoned blood. No matter how it became poisoned it must be purified to avoid death. Dr. Acker's English Blood Purifier has never failed to remove scrofulous or syphilitic poisons. Sold under positive guarantee.

Son. "Mother, do you never weary with all your correspondence?"

LYDIA PINKHAM. "No, my son, these letters of confidence bring to me the joy that a mother feels, whose daughter throws her arms around her neck and cries, 'Oh, mother, help me!' The women of the world are my daughters, dear."

Son. "Yes, mother, and they love you."

Lydia Pinkham's private letters from ladies in all parts of the world average one hundred per day, and truly has she been a mother to the masses. Suffering women ever seek her in their extremity, and find both a helper and a friend. Correspondents will receive prompt and conscientious answers, and the sympathy of a mother.

Things Worth Remembering.

When you feel a kind of queensness about the stomach, it is a sign that your food does not sit well and that you are about to have a fit of indigestion.

When you begin to feel nervous and are unable to sit still comfortably; when your clothes suddenly seem to lose their fit and become too tight in places the fit of indigestion is surely upon you.

When this fit of indigestion is repeated from day to day it finally resolves itself into dyspepsia.

Remember that three to ten of Brandreth's Pills will cure the worst case of indigestion or dyspepsia, or both, and that a regular course of them, any time every night for a week or ten days, will act as a preventive of either complaint.

The constant demand of the traveling public to the far west for a comfortable and at the same time an economical mode of traveling, has led to the establishment of what is known as Pullman Colonist Sleepers.

These cars are built on the same general plan as the regular first-class Pullman Sleeper, the only difference is that they are not upholstered.

They are furnished complete with good comfortable hair mattresses, warm blankets, snow white linen, curtains, plenty of towels, combs, brushes, etc., which secure to the occupant of a berth as much privacy as is to be had in first-class sleepers. There are also separate toilet rooms for ladies and gentlemen, and smoking is absolutely prohibited.

For full information send for Pullman Colonist Sleeper Leaflet. E. L. Lomas, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, Omaha, Neb.

The success of Mrs. Annie M. Beam of McKeesport, Penn., in the treatment of diarrhea in her children will undoubtedly be of interest to many mothers. She says: "I spent several weeks in Johnstown, Pa., after the great flood, on account of my husband being employed there. We had several children with us, two of whom took the diarrhea very badly. I got some of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy from Rev. Mr. Chapman. It cured both of them. I knew of several other cases where it was equally successful. I think it cannot be excelled and cheerfully recommend it."

by the Author of Ben Hur"

Absolutely free.

READ AND DO SOME THINKING

The voter cannot cast an intelligent Ballot unless he can appreciate the intricate manipulations of the wheels of government and become conversant to some extent at least with the fundamental facts and theories controlling the various great governmental departments, and he cannot hope to know the character of the chief executive unless he reads an Accurate and Impartial Biography, written and compiled by a Master Litterateur, equal to the difficult task.

Gen. Benjamin Harrison is a candidate for re-election. The Nation demands that the hero who led its armies in the Field, and who for four years has wisely and nobly steered the ship of state shall continue to hold the helm and guide our Nation through the perils of the future as ably as he has through those of the past. He who during the administration has saved the country from a series of threatening dangers, has brought Italy and Chile to the feet of our Republican throne, and made even England yield to American demands in the Behring Sea difficulty, is the man for the people of these United States.

Gen. Lew Wallace, who is known throughout the United States as one of the most intimate personal friends of President Harrison, and as having had a great deal to do with his re-nomination, has written a biography of the President, which reads like a veritable Romance, yet is Accurate History.

The book has been officially authorized and contributed to by the heads of the government in Articles regarding the workings of the Republican policy and the Present administration. These distinguished contributors include Hon. William E. Curtis, Hon. John W. Wainwright, Hon. Jeremiah Rusk, Secretary Foster and Hon. Eugene Hale. Their topics include commercial Reciprocity, Postal Service, Progress of the Public Domain, etc.

When General Harrison was asked his choice of a biographer he promptly replied, "My life-long friend, General Wallace." His chief advisors, interpreting the President's desire, have officially supplied the volume with most valuable contributions.

The Book is a Monument to Skill and Fidelity.

We offer it Free with three months' subscription to THE HERALD. The book sells for $1.50, and thousands of copies have been and are being sold. We are desirous of having such a book, brim full as it is of information of vital importance to the voter, in every home in Western Michigan. It will be referred to oftener than a dictionary, and will be read with more pleasure than a novel.
